

DAY 1:

PRAYER WARRIOR

PRAYER: (N) an act of supplication or intercession directed towards a deity; more generally, prayer can also have the purpose of thanksgiving or praise

My life was transformed when I became a prayer warrior, praying myself through situations. Praying for peace in the midst of storms and praying for others in the midst. I constantly praised Him for being with me instead of complaining about anything I was without. Praying for renewed strength and guidance in disparity. Thanking God for the smallest to ginormous blessings in my daily travels. Sending prayers up while speaking kind words to troubled faces. Speaking about His mercy, favor, and miraculous works to other believers. Declaring and decreeing protection from all demonic strategies and persuasion. I literally became a prayer warrior, stopping and praying for myself or someone else anywhere instantaneously. It sounds like I'm praying now, LOL... with many affirmations written, I struggled to find the one to begin with. Not realizing the answer was in my face all along. I consulted God as I do with all things, and He revealed what was to be. He said, "Begin like you do your day and all things of importance. Prayer and becoming a prayer warrior! Along with all things, I know it was the prayers of my mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother that saved me, they were all "praying" warriors.
